As you know, our enemies, the fish, have recently succeeded in infiltrating our base.

And who would have thought that I, of all people, would let it happen?!

I thought I had you executed, McLeery.

Anyway, the time has come to fight back! Let's see those war faces, men!
GRRRRRRRRRR!!

That's not a war face. What is that?
Oh, the tongue thing? It, uh... just happens when I get nervous.

Um... like this?
No, more growly.

That just looks stupid.

How 'bout now?
